POINTS

100 points will be awarded based on the following categories:

- 40 points - Originality and Creativity
- 35 points - Overall Appearance
- 25 points - Adherence to Theme

RULES AND GUIDELINES

1. You will be assigned one 8' x 8' area of sidewalk.
2. The Homecoming theme must be incorporated into your design.
3. Include the name of your group in the design.
4. You will have a two-hour time limit to complete your work. Judging will take place at 2 p.m.
5. Your group will be responsible for supplying the sidewalk chalk, no sidewalk paint allowed. There is no need for clean-up.
6. The All-University Homecoming student committee reserves the right to remove any sidewalk chalking deemed inappropriate.
7. Judging begins at 2 p.m. on October 22. No member of your organization is allowed to communicate with the judges during this time.

K-STATE HOMECOMING 2023

PAINT THE 'VILLE

When: Monday, Oct. 23 | 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. *Judging begins at 5 p.m.

Event Location: Aggieville

*Window assignment will be selected at the Oct. 16 All-University meeting.

POINTS

100 points will be awarded based on the following categories:

- 40 points - Originality and Creativity
- 25 points - Adherence to Theme
- 35 points - Overall Appearance

RULES AND GUIDELINES

1. Judging will take place at 5 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 23. Painting must be completed at this time.
2. The theme must be incorporated into the design.
3. Groups must provide all supplies needed for the event (paint, step stool, drop cloth, etc.).
4. One window per group. Placement of your group with a business's window will be drawn at the All-University Homecoming meeting on Monday, Oct. 16. There will be a five point penalty for using space other than your designated area. Please keep in mind that window sizes vary.
5. Make sure to order supplies in advance.
6. Window markers are not allowed.
7. Window must be painted with only water-based paint.
8. A sign will be provided in the bottom right/left corner with your group's name to designate which window of the business you have been assigned. Please do not cover this sign up with your design.
9. No access to the inside of the window is allowed. Penalties will be enforced if there is a violation.
10. Groups will be penalized five points for getting paint on sidewalks or buildings.
11. The Homecoming Committee reserves the right to clean any window(s) deemed inappropriate.
12. No expense reports are required for the Paint the 'Ville competition.
13. Any touch-ups should be completed no later than 2:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 27. The parade route will run through Aggieville, so windows should look nice for the parade crowd.
14. In case of inclement weather, a plan will be in place by 9 a.m. on the day of the event. Your Homecoming chair should check their email or call 785-532-2775 for more information.
15. Your group is not responsible for cleaning the windows after the week concludes. The Alumni Association uses a professional window cleaning company to clean each window.

K-STATE HOMECOMING 2023 CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL

2. Set up will take place from 5-5:30 p.m. Do not leave vehicles unattended while unloading.
3. Your booth location will be assigned upon your arrival for setup.
4. Masking or painters tape only. No scotch or duct tape.
5. Each group's booth must carry out the theme and must be in good taste, as this is an event attended by the parents and young children of the Manhattan community.
6. Each group must have a minimum of five individuals at the booth, with a maximum number of 10 individuals (fewer or more volunteers will result in a penalty).
7. Points will be awarded based on the number of people at the booth when judges arrive.
8. Bonus points will be awarded for each individual of your group at the booth that is dressed in attire to promote the theme.
9. Judging will take place during the event.
10. No expense reports are required for the Children's Carnival.

DO AND DON'TS:

- Think safety first: no sharp objects, weapons, dry ice, smoke effects or violent themes.
- Plan an interesting and interactive display to engage as many ages of children as possible.
- Make candy or giveaways a reward for participants.
- Keep activity simple.
- If you want to hang something, a Union maintenance repair technician or other Union employee must do it. No scotch or duct tape or tacky putty allowed.
- Helium tanks need to be secured to pillars or permanent secure objects.
- No hay, straw or cornstalks.
- No microplastics allowed (i.e., confetti, glitter, beads).
- Power will not be available or allowed at the booth.
- No water games allowed.
- No rice.

K-STATE HOMECOMING 2023 PARADE AND SPIRIT COMPETITION

Event Location: During parade route.

- All participants must arrive by 4:30 p.m.
- Carpooling is encouraged and personal vehicles are not allowed in parade assembly area.
- In case of inclement weather, alternative plans will be announced by 12 p.m. (noon) on parade day.

POINTS

100 points: 25 points possible for the following categories:
• Creativity • Member Participation • Overall Enthusiasm • Generation of K-State Spirit

RULES AND GUIDELINES

1. Respect the rights of other entrants and follow the instructions of the Riley County Police Department and other parade traffic directors.
2. Report to the assigned assembly area at the appointed time.
3. Keep distance between parade entries (10-15 feet).
4. Entries cannot hold up the parade route due to performances or demonstrations and must continue to move along the parade route.
5. DO NOT perform any actions that could be dangerous to spectators or participants (i.e. dangerous driving).
6. Group participation is required through parade route to the destination (City Park), where participants can exit floats and disband from walking groups. Failure to continue all the way to the park will result in disqualification from the competition.
7. Prior to the start of the parade, participants will be responsible to walk the parking lots and street areas at 4:40 p.m. to clean up trash that has blown to fences, curbs, bushes, etc. Failure of your group to do so will result in a penalty. Points will be deducted as seen fit by the Homecoming Committee if your area is not clean of trash and debris. You are required to bring trash bags to assist with this policy.
8. Contact the parade committee the day of the parade if there are any problems. The parade committee will be easily identifiable with colored flags on clipboards.

No animals allowed.
