TWIN CITIES, MN

DEAR K-STATE ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

We invite you to join us on an eye-opening adventure, specially designed to cast a spotlight on the fascinating past, present, and future of a Caribbean nation—off-limits to most Americans for over half a century. Just as our president stepped into history with a landmark visit to Cuba, you, too, will be a part of this unique chapter in U.S.-Cuba relations.

At a pivotal moment in time, connect with the authentic Cuba—an island graced with dazzling art and architecture—through its beating heart: Havana. One of the Caribbean’s largest cities, home to over two million people, Cuba’s capital buzzes with energy and captivating culture. Discover its collection of sights that leave lasting impressions, from the prestigious University of Havana to the glorious 18th-century Catedral de San Cristóbal, one of the most beautiful churches in the Americas. And, accompanied by expert guides, go beyond the tourist surface and engage in meaningful interactions with local musicians, entrepreneurs, students, historians, artists, and more.

This intimate, small-group journey is your gateway to the best of Havana, with insider access to unique cultural experiences and off-the-beaten-path sites. Space is limited, so reserve your spot now. Don’t miss the chance to explore Cuba’s effervescent capital—one of the world’s most intriguing destinations—with fellow alumni.

Sincerely,

Terin Walters

HAVANA: An Inspiring Haven of History, Culture & Architectural Majesty

Welcome to Cuba's capital city, a vibrant cultural oasis edging glittering seas. Founded in the early 1500s by Spanish conquistadors, plundered by pirates, occupied by the British, and later transformed into a notorious gambling hub by American gangsters, today Havana offers a setting as colorful as its 500-year-long history. Discover the city's thriving cultural heart, Vedado, teeming with contemporary art galleries, classic cabarets, and renowned museums; stroll along the Malecón, the city's legendary promenade; encounter the urban sophistication of Miramar, a suburb with lush, tree-fringed avenues and modern architecture; or amble the cobbled streets of Habana Vieja, with its leafy, monument-rich plazas and beautifully restored architecture. No matter where Havana's streets lead you, a restless fusion of past and present—revolution and rebirth—seems to echo around every corner.
