DEAR ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Discover the beauty of cruising the Columbia and Snake Rivers during the height of Cascadia's summer bounty aboard the American Empress. Arrive in Portland and make your way to Vancouver, Washington to enjoy an included one-night hotel stay in this city that's home to colorful gardens and boasts easy access to the great outdoors. Board the American Empress and sail to Astoria, the oldest city west of the Rockies, where the Columbia River meets the Pacific Ocean. This "Little San Francisco" showcases steep hillsides blanketed in Victorian homes and a chic downtown studded with cafés and shops. Travel to The Dalles, a city nestled between Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams that was once known as the end of the Oregon Trail. Then cruise through the heart of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area to Stevenson. This laid-back town offers visitors small-town charm, riverfront parks, and cozy restaurants. Spend a day in Richland—visit Sacajawea State Park, where Lewis and Clark and their Shoshone guide camped in 1805 during their famous expedition, or sample from a selection of award-winning local wineries in the Red Mountain AVA. End your trip in Clarkston, situated in the beautiful Lewis-Clark Valley and touted as the gateway to Hells Canyon, North America's deepest river gorge.

This eight-night adventure includes fresh regional cuisine, shore excursions, and beautifully appointed accommodations. Reserve your spot by January 3, 2020 to receive the one-night pre-cruise hotel stay and the $300 early booking savings per person. Don't miss the opportunity to encounter the Pacific Northwest aboard the American Empress.

Sincerely,

Terin Walters
